If you are going to Maggie Valley make your reservation now at the Quality Inn, the rate will increase to $229 or more on July 1. You can cancel without penalty 72 hours in advance.

Gary is planning a new rally on April 21 (Saturday), details to follow. Gary works very hard on these rally route and we appreciate his willingness to keep doing this. It is always fun and ends in dinner.

We are supporting a fundraiser for Peachtree Ridge where Jenni teaches. It will be a community service project for her students and a fund raiser for Angels Among us which is a pet charity near and dear to the hearts of Scott and Eileen Mossbrooks. There will be pet adoptions that day as well as the car show. The club will supply the trailer, sound system and support for the student workers. We are not advertising our club name at this point as is not located in our approved area. The show is April 28 plan to come out and offer support to Jenni, Scott and Eileen and maybe bring home a new furry friend.

Next meeting is at our spring show at Mustangs Unlimited on March 17. Please plan to be there for set up at 8, the meeting should be around 2 pm and we should be cleaned up and ready for dinner out at 5 pm.

Website report-

We are getting 35-50 hits a day

Please send info about area shows to Rick Schmidt for inclusion on the website

Mustang Club of America- our liaison to Mustang Club of America is Rick Hayslip. Rick explained the points system for medallions at national shows and a quick overview of what happens at a national show. CLEAN, CLEAN, CLEAN your car. If you are planning to attend the National in Augusta in May or any other national meets bring your clean car to the show at Mustangs unlimited and experienced members will unofficially judge your car and give you pointers. The Augusta National is the weekend of May 22. Rick also needs your Mustang Club of America membership number if you are a member even if you are not going to the show. To enter the national show you must be a member and memberships start at $25.
