Maggie Valley 2015

The 42nd Annual Shelby/Mustang and Ford Meet in Maggie Valley, NC August 29th set a record with 224 registered cars. A group of us drove up Friday morning with a stop at the Dillard House for breakfast, and then on to Maggie Valley to set up for the show. We had 74 cars pre-registered for the show, and registered another 50'ish on Friday afternoon. Saturday we were up early, finishing show setup, registering and parking cars, selling shirts, tallying votes, and generally having a good time through the awards which ended shortly after 5. Sunday Gary Dyke arranged a rally for the 9 cars that participated starting in Maggie and ending up in Highlands, we all had a great time, well deserved after all the hard work on Saturday. We had great weather all weekend until some light rain on Sunday. Thanks to all the members that came out to support the show and especially those that worked so hard on Friday and Saturday.

Richard Ryder's car was Charley's favorite

We had at least 10 club cars at the Cumming Kohl's cruise in to raise money for Sunshine on a Ranney day, a cause that we have worked with the last couple of years. We got to meet Charley again, we did a mini surprise car show for him last year at the reveal of the work they did on his house.

Then in July we headed to Summit Racing for the FOA show there. Congrats to Steve & Jan Harrison, Kenny Shoufler and Lisa Nemoga, Richard & Shirley Ryder, and Keith & Deb Corkern for their Top 30 awards.

Kenny receiving his award

Saleens (and others) at Wellborn Museum

In August we had 8 club cars participate at the Saleen National Show at Barber Motorsports Park in Birmingham. Congrats to Jeff & Debra Ramey and Rick and Georgianne Schmidt for their first in class awards. Also congrats to David Osborn, David Johnson, Sherry Johnson, David & Rita Aderhold for their runner up awards in their classes.

4 club cars at attended the (rescheduled from July 4th) Dahlonga show on Labor Day. Congrats to Michael Cunningham for winning an award with his 2015 50th Anniversary Edition. And once again the BBQ was great at Gold Citv BBQ.
