Pony Tales

Maggie Valley 2007

Well, it's that time again. Time for the annual Maggie Valley fall car show. We have arranged for the Eagle's Nest entertainment complex parking area as the show site. The new voting ballots have been printed as well as the t-shirts. We have had several vendors signed up to peddle their wares at the show. The goody bag stuff and door prizes are pretty much rounded up and ready to go. Having said that, goody bag stuff is always needed. More is always better when it comes to goody bags. If we have too much, we can use it for the winter show at Mustangs Unlimited. As of this writing we had 30 pre registers. This is the most we have had in the 34 years of doing this show. If this is evidence of how we can expect the turn out, then this looks as if it's going to be the largest to show date. Friday evening we plan to set up the show area and get vendors in position. As usual, we plan to caravan up on Friday Sept 21st with the obligatory stop at the Dillard House for breakfast. We plan to meet at the QT in Oakwood since the park n ride is now destroyed by road construction. We will leave at 7:00 which gets us to the Dillard House around 8:15-8:30 if you plan to meet up there. If you can make the cruise, it's a real blast! See Ya there!! You hungry yet?

August Meeting

We left Jacky's around 11:20 and headed off on some fun road travel. When we left Jacky's, the first town we came to was Helen. We passed by the river tubing and it sure looked tempting as the temperature was close to the century mark again. Once we left Helen the road course began. John Garrett and his dad led the way along with his niece and nephew Morgan and Bristol. They were closely followed by several different members including Richard and Amanda Garrett, David Osborn, Jodi & Brandi Osborn, Richard Groont, Jeff & Debra Ramey, and new members Dave Million and Doug Burns. After you leave Helen you come to some wickedly curvy roads. Some of us threw our cars into the corners very hard for the first 5 minutes or so until the road turned into an old boring straight road once again. We arrived in Hiawasse and took in some really nice sights along the road on our way to Hayesville, NC. When we arrived in Hayesville we stopped for a minute at Jacky Jones's other Ford store to regroup since we had become separated due to traffic. We stopped in Hayesville at a BBQ joint and who do we see leaving and making an extremely large dust cloud (gravel drive) was Jacky Jones himself (with a hat on?) I don't believe I have ever seen Jacky with a hat on before now. After filling up with food we were off once again. The next town we passed through was Murphy, NC. on our way to Blairsville and Vogel State Park. We stopped and unwound at the park and held short meeting. Jeff Ramey found his dinner looking over the side of the entertainment stage, a rather large turtle!!! He was looking for some fishing line and a pole (ha/ha) just kidding Jeff!!! We stayed at the park until around 3 pm or so and decided to get back on the road (or should I say road course again)? Between Blairsville & Cleveland is another set of serious curves, except this time we were going downhill and a lot faster. I think I slid my tires a few times (as in the words of Tim Allen (OOOOOOOOOyeah). We arrived back at Jacky's around 4 pm and everyone shook hands and went on headed for home.

David Osborn

I just wanted to let you know I really enjoyed the drive yesterday. The meeting location was appropriate and the route was scenic and had enough curves to be fun! Plus, the lead cars pulled over several times to help everyone stay together, which added to the drive. On the way back I meant to stop at Jacky Jones to say how much I enjoyed it, but I was going to Canton to see my parents so I felt I needed to start heading over there. Anyway.... thanks again for a nice event.

Mustangs Unlimited Pony Round Up (Winter Edition)

Mustangs Unlimited & NEGMC will be hosting a winter Pony Roundup at Mustangs Unlimited on Nov 11. Registration will be a new unwrapped toy or $15.00. It is not being advertised as a Toys for Tots, but we will take any toys to a Toys for Tots collection point. Mustangs Unlimited will provide trophies and door prizes. We will judge the top 20 and I use the term judge loosely. Mustangs Unlimited will pick the best of show. Make plans to attend!!!
